Conditions of entry

This exhibition is open to all financial members of the Waikato Society of Potters. If you are not a member and would like to join, please visit our website at www.waikatopotters.co.nz A maximum of three entries may be submitted, one of which may be a set of up to 6 pieces. Thanks to a grant from Hamilton City's Creative Communities fund, there is no entry fee to pay.

Selection Process

The selection process will be done by two members of the WSP Committee. The selectors' decision will be final and no correspondence will be entered into. The Awards, as shown above will be given at the Judge's discretion. Thanks to this year's judge, Peter Collis. The exception is the new People's Choice Award, which will be voted on by visitors at the opening preview.

Originality

All work must have been created in the last 12 months and be the sole work of the member, unless it is a joint work between two or more financial members, each of whom must be listed on the entry form. The work must be wholly original and not a copy of, or otherwise directly derived from, material seen elsewhere. Submissions previously exhibited at ArtsPost are not eligible for this exhibition.

Sales

A commission of 40% (46% inc GST) will be taken off the selling price by ArtsPost. Waikato Society of Potters is registered for GST. Prices must be shown in complete dollars and include GST. All entries must be for sale.

Packaging

All pots must be securely packaged in reusable packaging, which has the following information printed and attached to the box: a photo of the work and your name and phone number. Also attach a copy of your entry form; one copy per entry. It is the responsibility of the potter to deliver and pick up their work.

Insurance

Insurance is the responsibility of the potter.

Disclaimer

All due care will be taken with every aspect of the exhibition, but the organisers will not be responsible for clerical errors, nor unforeseen mistakes, including accidents or breakages. By entering into this exhibition, it is accepted by the exhibitor that they agree to these conditions and that photos of their work may be used for publicity purposes by WSP and sponsors. Enquiries to Susannah Salter, Manager, Waikato Society of Potters
